Presented by the Senior Class of

Haysi High School

HAYSI
PUBLIC LIBRARY
HAYSI, VIRGINIA

FOREWORD

As you turn through the pages of your 1955-56 yearbook, we hope to bring to your memory the years spent at Haysi High; recalling the happiest hours, the valued friends, and the best loved scenes.

We wish to dedicate this year's edition of the THUNDERBOLT to the past, present, and future Seniors of H. H. S.

Dear Seniors,

You have made tremendous progress in the past five years. May you have continued success as you go forward to meet the challenges of life.

It has been a pleasure knowing and working with each of you. I feel confident that you will make the right decisions concerning your future and will become useful citizens in our democracy.

May I join your host of friends in congratulating the annual staff and your sponsor, Mrs. Negetha Powers, for the splendid production of this, The Thunderbolt.

Best Wishes,

J. M. Tarwater

Who Made This Annual

Possible

PATRONIZE THEM!

Taking it easy, Bill?

Don't be greedy, Raymond.

A new position, Ronald.

Pretty smile, Della.

Anyone you know?

Who looks, Betty?

An exciting game, isn't it, boys?

Huh? As cute now as then?

A scene to remember.

Well, Well.

AND SO GOODBYE

Our school career fades away...graduation over...a new life...college, work, marriage...cherished old friendships...plans made and broken...Into the future...a world to be conquered...for some, fame-fortune, others disappointment...all striving for success...remembering the class motto..."Tonight we launch, where shall we anchor?"

And So Goodbye
